Gentlemen: I desire the following named dates of the U.S. copper cents. What have you to offer?

1793, 94 + 96 each Lib. cap.

1806, '21, '23, '25, '29, '32, 43
and '44. I want them uncirculated or very fine indeed.

Gentlemen:- Your letter of the 19th inquiring about the quality of the coins I desire, is at hand. The prices you name do not startle me for I know that the rare dated uncirculated are valuable. But most of these prices are higher than I care to go now. These are the kinds I want however. Among those you mention I should like to have on approval 1825-29-32 and 34 uncirculated. You mention an 1806 at about $4. but do not describe it.

if this be very fine I should like to have it also.
As to my financial standing I refer to Bradstreet and Dun. As to my care in handling fine coins
I refer to Mr. J. B. Collins of Brentwood Coaner N.H.
whom, I believe, you know.

Dear Sirs:-

I received the package of 10 copper cents tonight and shall start them back in the morning. I have kept the '25 at $9. and the '29 at $6. for which I forward my check on Boston for $15. The 1806s are not so good as I desire I should have taken the '32 if it had not been for the scratch on the cheek. The '43 I should have taken if I had not just heard of another which I expect to see within a few days. If you issue circulars or catalogs from time to time giving a list of fine cents on hand I should be pleased to receive them.

Yours truly

Albert K. Dow.

P.S. I have also decided to take the '43 at $14.

Gentlemen: Thank you for the suggestions as to probable prices.

At these prices most of them will be out of my reach, but I will change some of my bids as follows:— My bid for 1338 was a mistake, it should have been for 1348. I will increase the bid for $1310 to $10. and for 1364 to $5.
